

Though you have likely seen this poster many times and for many years on the backs of bathroom doors and in the hallways of schools, synagogues, agencies and community centers, this is to remind you that even when you are not visiting those places, the Sara Line is here for you.

1 of every 4 Jewish homes is the scene of relationship abuse.

Relationship abuse is a pattern of coercive behavior used to control another person. It can happen in any kind of relationship... but most victims are women and children.

Domestic abuse takes many forms:

Emotional

Physical

Sexual

Verbal

Economic

the SaraLine

24 hour hotline for Jewish women in abusive situations...
providing professional and confidential help.

585 697-SARA

In cooperation with

Willow (585) 232-7353 and Jewish Family Service (585) 461-0110

24-hour Text Line: (585) 348-SAFE

